

PRESS RELEASE
FCCC Committed to Reducing Red Tape to Help Fijian Businesses
Friday 7 August 2020

The Fijian Competition and Consumer Commission (FCCC) is committed to reducing regulatory red tape under the Business Assistance Program.

This follows a meeting between FCCC CEO, Joel Abraham, and a local investor - of Nadi's Handicraft and Inspired Properties, who is planning a major investment in Nadi.

"It is very good to see Fijians making much needed investments locally, especially considering the economic effects of COVID-19 and we believe it is very important to encourage and empower those who are willing to take such risks to benefit our community," said FCCC CEO, Joel Abraham.

"We are always ready to assist Fijian businesses in such undertakings with advice on how they can do things in the proper manner and are further committed to reducing any unnecessary hindrances like excessive red tape so that our economy can start seeing the benefits as soon as possible."

Abraham also said such ventures have the potential for job creation and economic reinvigoration and as such are more sustainable and have longer lasting effects.
