REVIEW OF FCCC PRICE CONTROL ORDERS

FCCC is currently reviewing the following Orders, which are set to expire in 2025:

- 1.FCCC (Control of Prices for Sugar Cane Cartage Lorry Services from Rakiraki to Rarawai) Order 2022 (expiring on 16 June 2025).
- 2.FCCC (Control of Prices for Aeronautical Services) Order 2022 (expiring on 23 June 2025).
- 3.FCCC (Control of Prices for Mechanical Harvesting Services for Sugar Cane) Order 2022 (expiring on 1 August 2025).

The review will include assessment on the current level of competition and business profitability, the social economic environment, policies for these products and the views, comments and suggestions of the stakeholders in Fiji. Based on the findings, FCCC would then make appropriate recommendations to the Minister pursuant to Section 40(3) of the FCCC Act 2010 on whether the Order should be extended, amended, varied, or revoked.

The FCCC is inviting interested parties to submit their perspectives, feedback, and recommendations regarding the existing order, including the possibility of extending it.

Members of the public can access the current orders via

- <https://fccc.gov.fj/agriculture/>
- <https://fccc.gov.fj/airports/>

Submissions must reach FCCC no later than 4pm on 4 April 2025.

All written submissions are to be sent to one of the addresses below or emailed to transport@fccc.gov.fj.
