

FIJIAN COMPETITION &
CONSUMER COMMISSION

The Fijian Competition and Consumer Commission (FCCC) is an independent Fijian statutory authority whose role is to enforce the FCCC Act 2010, promoting competition, fair trading, regulating prices in markets where competition is lessened or limited, and regulating monopolistic market situations, including national infrastructure, for the benefit of all Fijians.

CALL FOR SUBMISSION

REVIEW OF THE SELF-REGULATING GUIDELINE FOR THE SALE OF SECONDHAND MOTOR VEHICLES IN FIJI.

The Fijian Competition and Consumer Commission (FCCC) is currently in the process of reviewing the Self-Regulating Guideline (SRG) for the sale of second-hand motor vehicles in Fiji, which has been in effect from 14 July 2014. As part of this review, we are seeking input from interested parties to ensure the guideline is comprehensive, effective, and beneficial for all stakeholders involved.

FCCC invites submissions from the public, industry stakeholders, consumer groups, and all other interested individuals to submit their views, comments and suggestions on the above review. Your feedback is crucial in helping us refine the guidelines and ensure they align with the needs and expectations of the Industry, consumers, and regulatory requirements. The SRG for sale of second-hand motor vehicles in Fiji can be accessed on the FCCC website via link: <https://bit.ly/3Q8uHCl>

Please address your written views and submissions to the Chief Executive Officer of the FCCC, at the addresses below. For further information or clarification, kindly contact the FCCC at 8921991 or via the provided email.

FCCC appreciates your cooperation. Should there be any need for further clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Submissions must reach FCCC no later than 4pm on 4 April 2025. All submissions are to be sent to one of the below addresses in writing or by email to srg@fccc.gov.fj
